8	FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE
9	UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,
10	İ	Civil No. C70-9213
11	Plaintiffs,	Sub-proceeding No. 01-2
12	VS.
13	STATE OF WASHINGTON, et al.,	STIPULATION: CONFIDENTIALITY OF DOCUMENTS PROVIDED IN
14		DISCOVERY
15	Defendants.
17	The Court, in its Order on Motion for a Protective Order, Doct. 185, May 11, 2006, held
18	(4) Documents and information provided by the Samish Indian Nation pursuant to
19	discovery requests as part of this sub-proceeding shall not be used in any other legal proceeding without further Order of this Court. Financial information disclosed by the
20	Samish Indian Nation pursuant to discovery requests shall remain confidential. Treaty Tribes shall confer with the Samish Indian Nation before including any financial
21	information in any pleading they may f	file with this Court, for purposes of reaching
22	appropriate procedures to protect the	confidentiality of such information.
23	The active parties to sub-proceeding 01-2 enter into the following stipulation regarding
24	submission to the Court of financial information disclosed by the Samish Indian Nation in
25	discovery:
26	1. The party (including the Samis	h Nation) submitting Samish financial information

- 1 either in the body of a pleading or as an exhibit or attachment, including any reports, data or other
- 2 such information ("financial information") shall redact the financial information from the pleading
- 3 filed electronically with the Court as part of the public record of the proceeding. A blank space
- 4 will appear for financial information redacted from the body of a pleading or for financial
- 5 information that appears within the body of an exhibit or other document. If a complete
- 6 document is redacted, a single page shall be included in the document's place identifying the
- 7 nature of the document that has been redacted.
- 8 2. Simultaneously with such filing, the party filing the pleading shall send either by
- 9 facsimile or electronically a copy of such pleading (s) that includes all the redacted financial
- 10 information to all other parties to the proceeding.
- 11 3. The Court's working copy of any pleading shall include all financial information
- redacted from the pleading filed electronically with the Court as part of the public record of the
- proceeding.

26

- 14 4. The Samish Indian Nation, for pleadings filed by the Treaty Tribes, shall have five
- 15 (5) business days after filing of any pleading by the Treaty Tribes to designate, by written
- 16 transmission to Treaty Tribes and to the Court Clerk, additional financial information that it
- believes should be kept confidential. A revised pleading, with the additional financial information
- redacted, shall accompany such transmission.
- 5. Counsel for Treaty Tribes may disclose Samish financial information to their
- <sup>20</sup> clients as part of this sub-proceeding with the understanding that such information shall not be
- distributed or used for purposes other than as necessary for this sub-proceedings. Samish
- financial information shall not be used in any other legal proceeding.
- 23 6. In the event Treaty Tribes disagree with the designation by the Samish Indian
- Nation of specific information as confidential financial information under paragraphs 1 or 4 of this
- 25 Stipulation, the parties shall confer in an attempt to resolve such dispute. In the event the dispute

- 1 cannot be resolved within ten (10) days after a dispute is raised, the confidentiality of specific
- 2 financial information shall be submitted to the Court for resolution, whose decision shall be
- 3 considered a final decision for purposes of appeal. In the event of an appeal of the Judge's
- 4 decision on any matter in this sub-proceeding, the parties agree that the full pleading including all
- 5 redacted financial information will be substituted into the record for purposes of the appeal, and
- 6 the Court shall enter an order covering the confidentiality of the record.
- 7 To the extent possible, the Court shall redact financial information from any
- 8 Orders it issues.
- 9 8. The intent of this stipulation is to prohibit the release of confidential and
- proprietary Samish financial information to the general public.
- 9. Signature below constitutes agreement with the terms of the stipulation.
